A SPECIAL EDITION WORDS OF THE HARVESTERS

March 18, 2018 AD

Following is Our Lady's Message Given Through Mirjana
During Her Annual March 18, 2018, Apparition:

"Dear children! My earthly life was simple. I loved and I rejoiced in small things. I loved life—the gift from God—even though pain and sufferings pierced my heart. My children, I had the strength of faith and boundless trust in God's love. All those who have the strength of faith are stronger. Faith makes you live according to what is good and then the light of God's love always comes at the desired moment. That is the strength which sustains in pain and suffering. My children, pray for the strength of faith, trust in the Heavenly Father, and do not be afraid. Know that not a single creature who belongs to God will be lost but will live forever. Every pain has its end and then life in freedom begins there where all of my children come—where everything is returned. My children, your battle is difficult. It will be even more difficult, but you follow my example. Pray for the strength of faith; trust in the love of the Heavenly Father. I am with you. I am manifesting myself to you. I am encouraging you. With immeasurable motherly love I am caressing your souls. Thank you."

Power of Words Bring Down Empires

By a Friend of Medjugorje

April 2018 A.D. — Vol. #271

Our Lady said on May 2, 2009:

“...look at the signs...”

Our Lady didn't say “watch” for the signs, as Jesus said. Our Lady said, “look.” That one key word says everything about the moment we are in. Our Lady said on August 25, 1993:

“...pray to understand the signs of the time...”

The signs are there to see and understand and you are in the middle of Biblical revelations coming into reality in “real time.” Our Lady wants you to get your head out of the sand, not be an ostrich and hide, or listen to the media's fake news. She said on February 2, 2018, “...do not believe lying voices.” Cardinal Robert Sarah, a strong conservative African cardinal, has stood up against the secular push inside the Church many times, even to bishops, cardinals and authoritative voices from “the Left.” Do not say this is political, talking about the Right and the Left. Really, do you think that? It is a Biblical side. In the Bible it states, the lost will be on the left and the saved will be on the right as the following example reveals:

Matthew 25:33

“And He will put the sheep on His right, and the goats on the left. Then He will also say to those on His left, ‘Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels.’”

Another example is found on the Hill of Golgotha when Jesus died between a repentent thief and an unrepentent thief.

Luke 23:32-33

“Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with [Jesus]. And when they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left.”

According to Catholic tradition, the repentent sinner was on the right side of Jesus. For this reason, Jesus is often depicted dying with his head leaning towards the right, towards the Good Thief, while the unrepentent thief was on the left of Jesus.*¹

Going back to Cardinal Sarah, he recently said, *“High-ranking prelates...are working to cause [change] to Christian morality.”*² High-ranking! He is not talking about people in the streets. He is not talking about the Democrats in the House or Senate. He is saying high-ranking “prelates,” cardinals and bishops, are trying to change Christian morality. Cardinal Sarah also said:

*“Not only is the West losing its soul, but it is committing suicide, because a tree without roots is condemned to death. I think that the West cannot renounce its roots, which created its culture and its values.”*³

* This is not to say that everyone on the Right is good and righteous, or even will make it to Heaven, rather what the Right has in their beliefs, the eternal tenets, is the path to get to Heaven if followed. Whereas the Left denies and rejects eternal truths. In addition, this is not said in the context of politics, rather look at the differences in their platforms. The Left’s platform is filled with satanic advocacies.

Cardinal Sarah has been correct for years. Cardinal Gerhard Müller, the last head of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, recently said that the Magisterium is not supposed to lead the faithful into confusion. He stated:

“Christ did not institute the Magisterium in order to initiate processes which lead into confusion.”⁴

He said this in commenting on the ambiguous direction some in the Church hierarchy are taking.

Pope Francis’ 2016 Apostolic Letter, Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love), was written in a neutral way where it can be driven both ways, to the left or to the right. It is good in what it professes, but it is like Vatican II. Vatican II, because of a weakness of clarity, opened the door to a lot of misinterpretation, and now, in the same way, people on the Left are using Amoris Laetitia, to further the Leftist agenda in the Church and in society. That is why Cardinal Müller stated the Magisterium is not supposed to lead the faithful into confusion, because some of the documents being put out now by the Church are that way. They are not strong in decisively stating what the Church believes in these areas of morality that are causing great separation in the Church and in society.

A well-known Evangelical, Albert Mohler, President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, spoke of his disappointment with Pope Francis, when Francis addressed the U.S. Congress in September 2015. According to Mohler, Francis gave a very ambiguous talk to Congress. He never once mentioned Jesus Christ in his address, which shocked Mohler. Russell Moore, president of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, also expressed concern. They are alarmed because they have worked with Catholics to fight against abortion and for marriage as defined as only between one man and one woman, and they, meaning all Christians who are standing together on these issues, need the megaphone that the Catholic Church provides. Catholics and Protestants have become strong allies over the years in these battles, and these two Baptist theologians are disturbed in seeing the Church’s position being weakened by Pope Francis’ silence. Of Pope Francis’ address to Congress, Mohler said:

“It represents an opportunity to avoid having to get to the hard edges of Christian truth. It is an intentional effort to avoid a direct confrontation with the secularizing culture. It is an effort to try to get along in terms of this moral revolution, not so much at this point by changing the teachings of his church [the Catholic Church], but by soft peddling them or in the case of his address to Congress not even mentioning them. Not even daring to define marriage which is so central to the Catholic Church that it is actually one of the sacraments recognized by the Church, but the Pope didn’t reference marriage and he didn’t define it and that is incredibly telling.”⁵

Pope Francis spoke in a way that does not offend anybody. He never mentioned Jesus Christ in front of Congress, assumingly because he did not want to offend Muslims. In the same way that he avoided speaking of marriage, he also avoided the issue of abortion. This avoidance gave strength to opposing views and for people to interpret his silence as a somewhat consent of tolerance, both with the marriage issue and abortion. As Mohler describes it:

“That is why so many people are attracted to Pope Francis, who would otherwise be repelled by the teachings of his church and would oppose them publicly. It’s because evidently you can like Pope Francis because he doesn’t particularly represent any kind of defence of those teachings that cause such offense.”⁶

President Ronald Reagan said the words, “evil empire,” when speaking about Russia. Do you know what happened because of those two words? Do you know what resistance he got before he said them? All of his speech writers kept crossing the words out of his speech. All of his advisors around him said, “You can’t say that.” Even his most loyal advisors said, “You can’t just go out and call Russia an ‘evil empire.’ You can’t offend Russia like that. It’s too dangerous.” Unfazed, Reagan said he was going to put those words in there; his speech writers scratched them out. Reagan put them in the speech again. This happened several times! Not making any headway, his advisors went to other people to influence Reagan not to say “evil empire.” Finally, they went to Reagan’s wife, Nancy. Nancy, concerned this would backfire on her husband, strongly tried to convince Reagan not to say it.

Do you know what Reagan did? He said “evil empire.” Do you know what happened? Political prisoners in the gulags, which were torturous prisons, began to find out what Reagan had said. It was common for the Soviet guards to give the prisoners newspapers from TASS, the official news agency of the Soviet Union and its propaganda arm. They did so to brainwash prisoners and to sway them into believing the Soviet Union was good and a victim of the West. But when these political prisoners read that the President of the United States called Russia an “evil empire,” they went crazy with joy. Their only way of communicating with each other was through a code they managed to develop in how they flushed the commode. But that was sufficient to spread the news, and it did spread throughout the entire prison. It was the same for all prisons across Russia.

When these prisoners read ‘evil empire,’ they knew the power of those two words, coming from the man who held the most powerful position in the free world, would act as an exorcism upon the Soviet Union. They knew it was over. They knew the nation would fall. Can you imagine that? Can you imagine just how powerful those words were? “Evil empire.” God put power behind those words.

The same thing happened when President Reagan stood in front of the Berlin Wall. Reagan had told his writers what he wanted to say, but they argued against it, “You don’t want to go there and say that.” But he said it anyway, not with anger, but with power and authority, “Mr. Gorbachev, tear down this wall.” And after that, the Wall fell. No one believed it possible.

The NFL has taken a stand to desecrate the memory of all soldiers who gave their lives in battles fought for the United States of America from its very beginning; those who fought for Independence and in the Civil War; those who fought in World War I and II, from Korea to Vietnam, from Afghanistan to Iraq and all throughout our history. By putting their knee down during the National Anthem, they desecrate the flag and dishonor all those men who gave their lives to honor and protect the freedoms that are embodied in the American flag. President Donald Trump, while he was in Alabama in the fall of 2017, condemned the NFL for this. Some would complain that he did it crassly. But what happened to the NFL? It has been going downhill ever since.

There are people in positions in which God puts grace and power behind their words, and those words actually act as an exorcism. That is why these Evangelical Baptist theologians wanted Pope Francis to say what needed to be said in front of Congress. “We condemn anybody in these political houses that voted for marriage to be rearranged. We condemn you, who are Democrats, who officially state that your platform is ‘for abortion.’” “We condemn those Republicans who do not stand by their party’s platform which is officially pro-life, voting against life and the sanctity of marriage.” There’s nothing political about that. It is about truth. It is what Our Lady says to do, “...expose evil...” Condemn these “...lying voices...” Don’t listen to them. Call them out. But Our Lady says do not judge.

Yes, you do not judge their souls, but you certainly are to judge actions and condemn that which is destructive to society.

Reagan (also Pope John Paul II, collaborating equally with Reagan) brought down the whole Soviet Union Empire, by his words “evil empire” which were the pinnacle of all his actions. Trump started a major decline of support of the NFL, by his words. But Pope Francis, not using words to convict when given a pulpit in front of Congress, deeply grieved not only those Catholics who are in the trenches of the war against the family, but Evangelicals, themselves, are disappointed. They are in grief. They are in fear that this neutrality of not wanting to offend is creating great confusion in the Church while advancing the anti-god agendas in the culture. Francis’ power, his voice, is heard around the whole world. He is our Pope; we must have his clarifying words. If he had just said, “It is through Jesus Christ the world will change,” without any concern of what Muslims might think, how many people would have become emboldened in their Christian faith in Syria, where they are being persecuted by Muslims? How many Muslims would have been converted through the witness of these faith-filled persecuted Christians? And the same could be said for Christians around the world, in their own battles against a godless culture. Words have an effect, especially with people of position, because God gives that authority to them; and, therefore, He gives authority to their words.

We have done things and said things, through Our Lady's authority, that stun people. They change on the spot; it knocks them down. We didn't have a gun. We had the Word, and we had the Word with Our Lady. Her words convict. We hear it all the time. Here is just one testimony out of thousands we receive. A woman called Caritas of Birmingham after reading the March 2, 2018, message on Caritas' website, Medjugorje.com. She was in tears. She told us:

"The first sentence alone showed me how such a wonderful mother Our Lady is. A Friend of Medjugorje talks about how people would be going to hell if it wasn't for Our Lady. I'm one of those people!"

Do you see how words lived in Our Lady's messages just changed her heart? She went on and said, "Please continue to do what you're doing. I don't know where I would be without Our Lady and your mission." It is the words we are transferring from Our Lady. The power is there, just like with the Pope, but he is not using it. We are using it. She goes on and says:

"There are so many levels of understanding. Our Lady really does speak to everyone! I can't wait to see what a Friend of Medjugorje has to say and write about this message. I'm praying for him and his writing at this time."

The Word is power, when spoken with authority! Her messages are made up of words. These words are being given to change the direction of the world! Our Lady is not sitting around, throwing Her hand out to knock out an enemy with the power of God. She is not coming that way. It is through words, backed up by works, that She is changing the world through us.

NFL, you are a dog. (Trump's vernacular was a bit more crass)

Russia, you are an evil empire.

Gorbachev, tear down this wall!

God puts the power behind the word. There is strength in its conviction. If you are not convicting, if you have no strength in your words, you need to be following the Word more closely, living it more deeply with your actions. If you live these messages, you will receive the authority of the word that will knock people down from their positions of power. Not everybody will fall at every confrontation. You will suffer opposition and persecution. You will have great difficulties, but this is part of the walk. No, it is not a cakewalk, but it is something we have to engage in. We are in a battle now for our survival. As you will see as you continue to read, all the gains Our Lady has made with our nation is up for grabs. It is important to contemplate these things.

We Haven't Learned the Lesson Yet

There are some very disturbing things coming out right now that we are all beginning to see. We know it. But what we don't know, or at least what we are not practicing, is what Chinese warrior, Sun Tzu, wrote over 2,000 years ago. They Fired the First Shot 2012™ was foundationed on this principle⁷ and it has repeatedly been spoken about on Mejanomics and *RadioWAVE broadcasts, but still most everyone has not adopted it. Sun Tzu said:

“If you don't know yourself, and you don't know your enemy, you will lose every single battle.”

“If you know yourself, and you don't know your enemy, you will lose every other battle.”

“If you know yourself, and you know your enemy, you will win every battle and win the war.”

Those on the Right have not applied this. Everybody is talking about what is going on. But, nobody is thinking how the enemy works, what they do, what they are thinking about, and what next move they are planning and formulating. This is not about President Trump. This is not about a political party. This is about good versus evil. Our Lady is going to change the direction of the world when we, the people, change our hearts. Our works back up our words:

* RadioWAVE is a radio station that is broadcasted through Caritas of Birmingham, 24-hours a day. Medjugorje.com has carried these broadcasts since 2006. It plays songs of life, faith, marriage, family, love, country, etc. A program entitled Mejanomics is hosted by a Friend of Medjugorje every Thursday at 12:00 p.m. CST, when he discusses many important issues of our time, including economics. On the 25th and the 2nd of the month, when Our Lady gives Her messages to Marija and Mirjana respectively, a Friend of Medjugorje discusses the messages in his RadioWAVE broadcasts. This issue of Words of the Harvesters was inspired through the March 8, 2018, Mejanomics broadcast. More will be added in the future.

November 2, 2015

“...faith alone without love and works of love is not what I am asking of you: my children, this is an illusion of faith. It is a boasting of self. My Son seeks faith and works...only love and works of love will remain and open the door of the Kingdom of Heaven...”

June 2, 2016

“...love invokes love and makes works more important than words. Therefore, my apostles, pray for your Church, love it and do works of love...”

When we change our hearts, and we go to God and depend on Him in everything, then He will provide us with the leaders we need to win the victory. You are what your leaders are. We are in a great battle, a struggle, which is the August 2, 1981, message. We are repeating it. You need to always have this message in your heart:

“...A great struggle is about to unfold...between my Son and satan. Human souls are at stake.”

The Democratic platform is demonic. You might say not just ‘Democratic,’ but ‘demonic-cratic.’ That is what they are. Yes, we have some bad Republicans, and they are worse. Why? Because Revelation 3:16 says that:

“So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of My mouth.”

That describes many Republicans. Christ will vomit them out, because they pretend to be one thing, but they act the opposite way. At least we know where Democrats stand. The problem is, we don’t look at our enemy to try to understand their tactics. We have to use the method Sun Tzu taught. This is one of the reasons why he is studied at West Point and military schools around the whole world. After 2,500 years, they are still studying Sun Tzu. Why then are we not? Look at just a few of the things the Left is doing to swing the pendulum back to their side:

I. Building a Case for Impeachment

Do you realize that when Trump's hand was on the Bible taking the Oath of Office for the Presidency, there were already people calling for his impeachment? The very next day, Senator Nancy Pelosi was heard in an interview on the radio stating that Trump was going to be impeached. The day after he took the Oath of Office! Never mind the will of the American people. She was asked how that was going to happen. Pelosi stated that they were going to build a case to impeach him. Our enemy is telling us what they are doing, and we don't take them for their word? She said they are going to build a case. They are going to manufacture a case against Trump to impeach him. In other words, if Pelosi's cohorts can't find something, they will make it up. Lying voices. Shortly after that interview, Pelosi changed her talking points, stating that she would not recommend impeachment, though talk of impeachment of Trump was pervasive among the Left, even before his election.⁸ However, it was clearly heard on the radio on January 21, 2017, that Pelosi said they will have to "build a case" for impeachment. Apparently, Pelosi went beyond what she was suppose to say in regards to their strategy, because this statement has been scrubbed from the internet. It implied that they were going to go after Trump, and that is exactly the strategy that has been put into place.

For more than a year, investigations have been going on to try and unveil collusion between Russia and Trump. Democrats insist that Russia tainted the election results that allowed Trump to be elected. They do not believe this; but they needed a way to build a case against Trump. Yet, the only evidence that has been uncovered in over 14 months has revealed that it was not Trump, but Barack Obama's administration and the Democratic National Convention who are guilty of collusion with Russia, and many in the highest echelon of the FBI and Obama's administration are implicated in the corruption and scandal, all of whom were confirmed under Obama's tenure.

Andrew McCarthy, a former Attorney General, in a recent interview, explained the hypocrisy of the Robert Mueller FBI investigation against President Trump. He says, "What has happened here at the highest level of the government is that you decide to assign a prosecutor and tell him to go find a crime.”⁹ Do you understand that? That is not the way it works. We know that on the side of right, but do we know our enemy? Let me repeat what McCarthy said so it is clear to you, and so you understand yourself and you understand your enemy. “What has happened here at the highest levels of the government is that you decide to assign a prosecutor and tell him to go find a crime.” And if they can’t find one, they will manufacture one through the investigative process. That is what is happening. We have had a year of these lies and it is still continuing. Who is outraged by this? Are you? “How could this have happened?” No one is realizing yet who our enemy is. Pelosi said it the day after Trump’s first day in office. “We will have to build a case to impeach Trump.”

II. Judges Being Blocked

Do you know that many judges that Trump has picked, all of them strong Constitutional judges and those who believe in the Rule of Law, are being blocked from being confirmed by the House and Senate? In eight years of holding the office of the President, Obama nominated and confirmed 323 regional federal judges. Yet, in Trump’s first year as President, the number of federal judgeships needing to be filled has already reached 160 openings. That is an incredible difference and why many see, as does President Trump himself, that this could be the greatest legacy of his presidency—redirecting the federal courts away from progressivism and back towards the Constitution, reshaping the bench for generations to come.¹⁰ One hundred sixty federal judges in Trump’s first year! But most of their confirmations are being blocked, primarily by Democrats, but there are some Republicans stalling the process as well. It was reported on a recent conservative talk show that in the House of Representatives, the representatives are only working two days a week so that those Democrats running for re-election can have the time to campaign, and take over the House so they can then impeach Trump. They are only in Congress two days a week and the Republicans are allowing that. All the while, these 160 judges are being held in limbo. Knowing your enemy would show to you that they are purposely delaying until after the midterm election in November, hoping to gain more seats, and having a majority, stone-wall all of Trump’s judicial picks. Thereby, the transformation of the judicial system would stop, which currently, through judicial activism propagates abortion, abominable false perverted civil unions masked as marriage, and the ending of religious liberties. Every day one hears of more satanic evils coming through the judicial system against U.S. citizens; decisions that are moving towards taking away all of our Constitutional rights. Their words and their works tell us about their agenda. Their intended goal is to do away with the United States Constitution. Eighty-five-year-old Supreme Court Justice, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, continues to hold onto her office despite age and poor health and the fact that she often falls asleep on the bench. Knowing President Trump will replace her with a conservative Constitutional justice, Ginsburg's refusal to retire is to obstruct such an appointment, in the hopes that the midterm elections will change the status of the House to force Trump to choose a more liberal or middle-of-the-road justice.

To clarify this grave point, appointing Constitutional federal judges is one of the main battles that must be won to be able to win the war. These judges will rid the judicial system of a host of unconstitutional and dangerous laws that were passed in the Obama era and before. These judges can return the United States back to the Rule of Law and change the whole court system. That is why President Trump's nominees are being blocked or slowed down. Those who are against President Trump are stalling the confirmation process of many of these federal judges until they can get to the next election cycle coming up in November. If they can win seats that Republicans now hold, they can paralyze Trump's every move in the future. They can permanently stop the advancement of Constitutional judges being appointed, they can block all of Trump's initiatives, and they then can succeed in the impeachment of Trump.

III. Are Elections Being Stolen?

Our Lady said on September 25, 1990:

“...satan is strong and wants to destroy and deceive you in many ways...satan wishes to destroy my plans and hinder the desires which the Heavenly Father wants realized here...”

Since Trump has taken office, there have been over 40 changes in State Houses across the United States—State Houses that have been turned over from Republican to Democrat. How is it that Trump can win the presidential election in a district in Kentucky, 73 points to 17 points, and then a Democrat runs in a special election and takes that seat? This is happening all over the country. Three more just recently flipped over to Democrats: Connecticut, New Hampshire and Pennsylvania. How do these districts change to Democrats, when they have been so strong for Trump and Trump's popularity is increasing? It doesn't make sense. "Know yourself and know your enemy." We have known that Obama's administration changed many of the district lines to favor Democrats in future elections. We are seeing this manifest before our eyes. The Left is spending all kinds of money and doing whatever they have to do to get these State Houses. Why? Early this year, Ellen Tauscher, a former Democrat and representative for Northern California states why:

*"You can't have a conversation about impeachment until you take the House back."*¹¹

California Billionaire Tom Steyer has spent more than $50 million in a "Need to Impeach" campaign against Trump, as well, to try and flip the House this year. He states:

*"Millions of Americans know this president is unfit to be president. They need to know that a Democratic Congress would do what is morally and urgently necessary."*¹²

Again, to drill this into you, if they are able to get a majority in the House of Representatives, Trump will be impeached. They don't need a case against him. They just need numbers. They can manufacture a reason. Are you ready to go to war? We need to go to war. We need to be at war right now.

IV. Conservative Black Voices Are Being Silenced

Democrats have always been able to count on the Black vote, but Donald Trump has been a game-changer in this. Many Blacks turned against Obama as his policies did nothing to make their lives better. More and more Blacks are realizing that they are being played as pawns by the political Left. As their eyes opened, their voices raised. A young Black woman who works with Tony Perkin's American Family Council is calm, straightforward and is educating the Black community to the hypocrisy and bad policies of the Left. While the Left are called "Progressives," their policies keep Blacks down. More and more Blacks are seeing and saying, “They want to keep us on the plantation.”

Change is beginning to happen with many Blacks who are crossing over the aisle to the Right. Black men and women, such as Alfonzo Rachel, Diamond & Silk and Candance Owens, attractive, bright and intelligent, began to accrue large followings when they took to social media to hammer against the false narrative of the Left and started teaching conservative Christian ideals and policies while backing Trump. They saw an immediate impact as many Blacks began to listen; too many for the enemy to allow. If you know your enemy, you would know that this threatens the agenda that thrives on creating racial division and class warfare. So, it should be no surprise that some of these voices have been censored by some of the most popular social media sites! They were targeted, censored and discriminated against by YouTube, Facebook and other networks in an effort to, if not eliminate, at least to limit the influence of conservative voices to keep Blacks and others from discovering and spreading the truth.

At the same time, an activist group, the Movement for Black Lives (MBL), has set up voter registration at theatres where the movie “Black Panthers” is being shown, a popular movie that is drawing vast numbers of Blacks to it. Inner city blacks rarely register to vote. MBL’s stated purpose:

“The Movement for Black Lives is launching the Electoral Justice League (EJP), an intensive cohort and coaching process that will resource 12 Black organizers for the 2018–2019 election cycle to gain progressive candidate and advocacy wins in their communities.”¹⁴

Ad for voter registration at “Black Panthers” movie.

They have a far-reaching agenda in seeking to defeat a moral direction so many Americans are praying and working towards. As with so many of the Leftist's agendas, it promotes hatred which Our Lady warns of:

January 25, 2015

“...Now, as never before, satan wants to suffocate man and his soul by his contagious wind of hatred and unrest...Hatred and war are growing from day to day...”

Rwanda's genocide was the end result of satan fermenting hatred within a people. satan is never lacking in his ways to “suffocate” the souls of men, as the following directives of the Movement for Black Lives show:

1. Develop a Black Political Identity by investing in building a Leftist black radical political project and translating their public policy demands & national platform to further connect with other blacks that they can manipulate.
2. Focusing on electing more Democrats will enable them to expand & mobilize to manipulate the Black Electorate by recruiting, training and sending out Black messengers to engage Black voters on local issues so to keep them on the Democratic plantation.
3. Grow the Capacity of Black led Grassroot Organizations to champion a political strategy designed by Leftists in order to manipulate communities to keep Democrats in office.
4. Build a Political Home for ALL Black people with an agenda to keep them co-dependent on Democrats in office.¹⁵

So, while the Left works to disconnect conservative blacks from educating the black population, they are also continuing to manipulate and use blacks as pawns to move forward their agenda to transform the United States of America through class warfare. Their sites are on the 2018 election cycle. Blacks will suffer far greater through the Demonic-cratic agenda. It was Our Lady who warned the Croatians before a deadly war came upon them to seek to love their neighbor, not hate them:

January 28, 1987

“...Do not deceive yourselves into thinking, ‘I am good, but my brother next door is no good.’ You would be wrong. I, your Mother, love you and it is for that reason that I am warning you about this.”

V. Step Four in Six-Step Process of Total Control

Far-left activists are calling for the murder of Conservatives. The story got no mention from the liberal mainstream media. The Left is officially at step four in their six-step process for complete Democrat-Communist-Totalitarian Rule. Here are the six steps to rule and take full control of society:

1. Verbally attack, demonize, and de-humanize any Right-wing voice on T.V., radio, or Internet.
2. Physically attack, beat heads through protests and demonstrations.
3. Go after people’s money, livelihood and reputation. Attacks on prominent talking heads and Conservative websites through doxing*, demonizing, shadow-banning, blocking, etc.
4. Silence those who dare to speak out (see YouTube and Facebook of hundreds with Conservative voices).
5. Jail the ones that will not conform to narratives (i.e. “hate crimes”).
6. Kill anyone who opposes (as happened with Communism in order to take over nations as well as National Socialism, etc.).”¹⁶

* Doxing is a technique of tracing someone or gathering information about an individual using sources on the internet, typically with malicious intent, and publishing the information to hurt their reputation. It’s name is derived from “Documents” or “Docx”.

 Shadow banning is the act of blocking a user or their content from an online community such that the user does not realize that they have been banned. Usually it takes the form of showing that user’s posts/profile/etc., only to that user, other users never see them.

 Blocking is a technical measure intended to restrict access to information or resources. Blocking is used to deny access to users that have broken their rules and will likely do so again; but these bans have been used by large companies such as Facebook and Twitter against those who have a different political allegiance, namely conservative sites, and therefore have been greatly criticized for their unjust bias.

Had Hillary Clinton been elected, we would have already reached number 5. It wasn't too long ago that if anyone said he was going to kill the president, he would be arrested. Just saying the words, "Kill the President," would have been grounds for arrest. It sent a message to all of society that you cannot make threats without consequences. But now anyone can say, "I want to kill Trump," on national television and nothing happens. Voices are rising more and more to, "Kill Conservatives."

VI. The Second Amendment is in Their Crosshair—The Right to Bear Arms

We don't like wading in this kind of debate, because people are so closed to it, even many of Our Lady's people, because they don't understand it. It's not about anybody wanting to shoot someone. It's about defending yourself. You have that right and the Catholic catechism is crystal clear that it is your God-given right. The catechism even says that if you are threatened and believe your life is endangered, and by defending yourself, you kill the aggressor, even if you later find that he was unarmed, you are not guilty of a wrong. As stated in They Fired the First Shot 2012, "For the preservation of peace, it is necessary to understand the preservation of life."¹⁷ The Catechism of the Catholic Church states:

"...The act of self-defense can have a double effect: the preservation of one's own life; and the killing of the aggressor...the one is intended, the other is not."

"Love toward oneself remains a fundamental principle of morality. Therefore it is legitimate to insist on respect for one's own right to life. Someone who defends his life is not guilty of murder even if he is forced to deal his aggressor a lethal blow.

"Legitimate defense can be not only a right but a grave duty for someone responsible for another's life. Preserving the common good requires rendering the unjust aggressor unable to inflict harm. To this end, those holding legitimate authority have the right to repel by armed force aggressors against the civil community entrusted to their charge."¹⁸

Legitimate authority also includes a parent protecting their children or even a neighbor. We hear from people, especially from foreign countries who say, “What is wrong with America is guns.” No, what is wrong with you is you don’t have them. That is why you have Socialist governments. That is why you are taken over. You have no defensive measures against government that history shows is always moving away from God and towards humanism and the taking away rights of the citizens. Everywhere a nation has been undermined and taken over, the people were disarmed beforehand. That is why our Founding Father’s placed the Second Amendment into the United States Constitution.

Virginia Delegate, Nick Freitas, an Army Special Forces Veteran, who is seeking a Senate seat in the coming November elections, spoke before the Virginia Assembly on March 2, 2018. His articulate and rational defense of the Second Amendment went viral, as he stated everyone has the right to defend themselves, as does society as a whole.

“So when people on this side talk about the importance of the Second Amendment, and please understand, it’s not just some base philosophical conviction that we all have. It is rooted in the idea that though we may be a post-enlightenment society, the vast majority of horrible atrocities that we have seen have happened in those post-enlightenment societies; has happened as a result of governments systematically disarming citizens and claiming themselves to be the sole responsible party for their security. And then turning on those same citizens and punishing them. That’s the most egregious cases, but in the individual cases of self-defense that’s why the people of this side of the aisle hold the Second Amendment in such high esteem because we honestly believe that you have an inherent right to defend yourself and your ability to defend yourself should not be excluded to your size. Firearms provide someone who is weaker and not as fast the ability to actually defend themselves from a stronger attacker.”¹⁹

How is a 115-pound woman or 125-pound woman going to defend herself against a six foot, 220-pound man? That’s not equal. This is happening every day, all day long, around the entire nation and world. A gun in the purse of such a woman is an equalizer. It gives her a chance to defend herself. It’s just reason. It’s just logic. Freitas states:

“We can look at the number of cases within the United States where a gun has been used for self-defense. Estimates range everywhere from 100,000 uses to over a million uses in the United States. Now some organizations and some reporters only want to report on the ones where a gun was used and actually resulted in the death or maiming of the perpetrator. But if you look at the ones used in the mere presence of the firearm actually dissuaded a criminal from committing an act of violence, an act of rape, an act of murder, the number shoots up, it skyrockets.”²⁰

For those who believe that to be a Christian one must seek peace without resorting to the use of any kind of weapon, take a look at a picture of St. Michael, the Archangel. What is he holding in his hand? He is the head of God’s Army and he is holding a sword, with satan under his feet. St. Michael is defending Heaven and Heaven’s citizens with a sword. Our Lady says,

December 25, 2016

“...Heaven is with you and is fighting for peace...in the world...”

But it is not just Heaven that should be fighting. Our Lady also says the same to us:

October 25, 1984

“...defend yourselves against evil...”

As the comments Freitas was making to the Virginia Assembly was part of a larger discussion about what can be done about protecting students from school shootings, Freitas addressed this as well:

“All of us would agree that our students need to be better protected when they go to school. One of things we would look at is arming certain teachers; not every teacher. But a teacher who is comfortable with it, who was formally in law enforcement, or formally in the military but is now in the classroom. Delegate Plume said yesterday that that is ridiculous to consider. Why? Is it because the other side of this debate will only accept 'one' solution to this problem and that is tearing apart or gutting the Second Amendment? If you are wondering why we can't have an honest debate over this one it's because quite frankly I don't think any of us on this side of the aisle believe you when you say that's all you want to do (background checks and bumper stocks)... Because when the policies fail to produce the results you are promising your constituents, you will be back with more reasons why we have to infringe on Second Amendment rights.”²¹

Our Lady said on October 2, 2003

“...Do not allow satan to reign over you with the false peace and happiness...”

Ample evidence exists that “gun-free” zones are targeted for attacks, while heavily guarded areas deter assailants. As Freitas says above, “when the policies fail to produce the results you are promising,” a promise of “false peace and happiness,” “you will be back with more reasons why we have to infringe on Second Amendment rights,” always inching closer to allowing satan “to reign over” us. On March 20, 2018, an armed school resource officer in a school in Great Mills, Maryland, shot and killed a 17-year-old shooter after the student had shot and injured two students. The 17-year-old shot at the officer simultaneously as the officer shot back. The officer was not hurt. Obviously, had there been no one armed in the school, another slaughter potentially would have happened. It stopped because someone had a gun, an equalizer, to defend the defenseless. This foiled school shooting vindicates all those who have been vilified by the Left for urging the arming of volunteer teachers and others in schools. It works. Why are those on the Left so against it? *Know your enemy.*²² Their real desire is to take away your guns because their agenda to rule over you dictatorily cannot be fully achieved by the ballot box.

Did it strike you strange how fast the student protests spread against gun control just after the Parkland, Florida school shooting; how only those students who were against guns were interviewed; how “new” buses were going to schools and busing students to these protest gatherings; how those students who were for gun rights were vilified and silenced? If you know yourself, and you know your enemy, you wouldn't have been surprised. You would have known that your enemy was planning and waiting for the next school shooting. It was not a spontaneous uprising. It was clearly organized to use and manipulate students for the elimination of the Second Amendment. It all played out too smoothly not to have been planned whenever the next shooting took place. Scott Israel, Sheriff of Broward County, was part of it, the way he took over and explained everything and started going against guns. The Parkland shootings were purposely politicized. They were ready for this. They had planned the plan in a box. How many red flags were missed by FBI and area police concerning Nikolas Cruz before the fatal shooting? How could there have been such negligence by so many? Over 30 times authorities were contacted with serious concerns about Cruz, even with actual threats that he was going to go on a shooting spree in a school. It just doesn't make sense that he could have just slipped through the cracks. This great push to abolish the Second Amendment, while disdaining the possibility of arming volunteer teachers, makes no sense either. Unless you know your enemy.

VII. Society has the Right of Self-Defense— It's Called Capital Punishment

There are people out there that will kill and kill again. There are people who have killed who were placed in prison and then killed people in prison. Society has a right to defend itself. The purpose of the electric chair is to defend society against people who are too dangerous, even for themselves. They can't even be incarcerated without killing somebody else, and that's happened over and over and over again. It's a right, and the Catechism states all of society has this God-ordained right. Nobody can change that and say it's wrong. It's not wrong. It is society's top protection to defend itself. Society has that right because, when you take a life, you have to pay with the highest price; the highest price you can pay is your own life. Life has little value if you can take 17 people and kill them and not have to pay the highest price you can pay, which is your own life. Anti-capital punishment advocates are really saying: Seventeen lives is still not enough to equal the worth of one's own life. Jesus never spoke against the death penalty because He would be going against His Heavenly Father's will. Christ was for the death penalty so much that when Peter told him not to go to Jerusalem because Peter knew they would sentence Him to death, Jesus severely said to Peter, "Get behind me satan." The sentence of death was the price Christ had to pay for the crimes of man. This was required by the Heavenly Father! Jesus was in the Flesh and

He asked for a pardon begging, “Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me,” meaning His death sentence, but then prayed, “Yet, not my will but yours be done.” If you are against the death penalty, what are you saying to the Heavenly Father? You are saying, “Don’t let Your Son go to Jerusalem!” His response to you is the same given to Peter, “Get behind me satan.” When a man is sentenced to death for committing murder, by voluntarily accepting the sentence, he expiates for his sin. By expiating for his sin, Heaven is opened to him. The Church cannot be against the death sentence for society’s protection without being against God who required and accepted only the death penalty to pay for the crimes of man. It’s just wisdom. It’s just common sense. Do not engage with lying voices who only speak to confuse truths. The Catholic Catechism states:

“Preserving the common good of society requires rendering the aggressor unable to inflict harm. For this reason the traditional teaching of the Church has acknowledged as well-founded the right and duty of legitimate public authority to punish malefactors by means of penalties commensurate with the gravity of the crime, not excluding, in cases of extreme gravity, the death penalty. For analogous reasons those holding authority have the right to repel by armed force aggressors against the community in their charge.”

“The primary effect of punishment is to redress the disorder caused by the offense. When his punishment is voluntarily accepted by the offender, it takes on the value of expiation. Moreover, punishment has the effect of preserving public order and the safety of persons. Finally punishment

The Future of Our Nation

A Legacy Gift to Caritas in your Will is a gift to help preserve and protect the United States of America right now, but also into future generations.

The widespread enculturalization of Our Lady’s messages into our Nation’s way of life helps put our Nation on a solid foundation to be holy, powerful, and influential in propagating Christianity and liberty in the coming generations – even to the end of the world.

A gift in your Will to Caritas helps build the long-term infrastructure of the mission. You can look down from Heaven with joy and peace, watching your wealth help protect this Nation that God has so richly blessed, and many men have bled and died for.

To discuss making a Legacy Gift in your Will to Caritas or to inform Caritas that you have placed the mission in your Will, call Caritas’ Planned Giving Department at 205-672-2000. Ask for Jason. Thank you.

has a medicinal value; as far as possible it should contribute to the correction of the offender. ²³

Those who denounce the death penalty place a lower value on human life than those who support the death penalty. The former holds life as cheap; the latter holds the highest value of one's life, which is why one must give their own if they take, with purpose and intent, the life of someone else.

VIII. The Obamas

The former First Lady of the United States, Michelle Obama, was asked if she was planning on running for president. She said, *"No. I'm going to just create a thousand 'me's'."*²⁴ How arrogant. But see, if you know your enemy, you would know that she and her husband are in such deep water, because the dog handlers are on their trail. They have committed treason at the highest level and should go to prison, or worse than that, for what they did in trying to destroy the United States of America and their power grab to change the whole world's direction. Though she wants to, Michelle Obama won't dare run for president, because there would be more hounds on her trail to expose what she and her husband, Barack, have done. If you know your enemy, you would know their plans. So, the next best thing is to create "a thousand me's." Again, if you know your enemy, you would understand why she said that. The only reason she would not run is because it would draw more attention to them. They want the attention to stay on Hillary Clinton, but they are the real criminals. Hillary is just a street criminal; these people have an agenda. Obama repeatedly said,

*"We will stand up in this election to bring about the change that won't just win an election, but will transform America."*²⁵

And they are still at it. Michelle Obama said that she had always been ashamed of America, saying after her husband was elected,

*"For the first time in my adult life, I am really proud of my country because it feels like hope is finally making a comeback."*²⁶

They are very evil people with evil agendas. There is nothing good about them. They are the Herods of the time. Remember, Barack is the one who came up with the comfort rooms; a room to take a live baby that has survived an abortion where the nurse can rock the child, with no medical help or food, until he dies. This evil is undeniable and well documented when Obama was an Illinois senator. There is nothing Obama wouldn't do to see his plans fulfilled. The only reason he is semi-quiet now is because the lime light is creeping towards him. Evidence has been surfacing of how he filled thousands of positions to form a "shadow government" of what many are mistakenly calling the "deep state." The "deep state" is a body of people, typically influential members of government agencies or the military, believed to be involved in the secret manipulation or control of government policy. A "shadow government," on the other hand, is based on the notion that real and actual political power resides not with publicly elected representatives but with private individuals who are exercising power behind-the-scenes, beyond the scrutiny of democratic institutions. The official elected government is subservient to the shadow government which is the true executive power. Obama worked to form a shadow government across the eight years of his presidency, so that after his second term in office ended, he would still maintain his power behind-the-scenes, and fulfill his aim to completely transform America into a socialist state. This is why Obama never left Washington, D.C., after Trump's election. He is the only former president to stay in Washington after leaving the presidency. His plans were/are to continue to "rule" and to see his agenda brought to completion. Therefore, the Obama's have to lay low because their plans are coming to light. Our Lady is here to expose their evils. Our Lady said:

November 2, 2006

"...do not permit delusions to rule over you..."

August 2, 2011

"...you cannot stop the evil that wants to begin to rule in this world and to destroy it..."

February 2, 2012

"...pride has come to rule..."

March 2, 2013

“...cast away the darkness that wants to surround you and come to rule over you...”

There were many things written about Obama in They Fired the First Shot 2012 in March 2012, that foretold all that is just now coming to light in 2018. Everything that is happening now was foretold there. It spoke of Obama taking a third term in office. As you read the following, remember that Obama was not yet elected for his second term:

“We are foolishly observing what Obama is taking in authority and not seeing that his re-election efforts will be filled with abuses of our electoral process. Who can doubt that there will be massive fraud in the election process to keep Obama in a second term when the first term set him up to have dictatorial power? Will he then have the ability to stay in office after his second term and the power to do whatever he wants done to go into a third term and if not stopped, his executive orders, laws, regulations and his actions can allow him to take a permanent term? This is the mindset seen in those that surround Obama, and those who have appointed him as their stool pigeon. Obama already displays he is not concerned about re-election. Does he believe he will have consolidated his power and will reign unchallenged by then? This is not said in regard to any other candidate, rather, he has amassed enough power to act, if he chooses, before the election to keep power. And, he has amassed enough power to act after the election to hold power.”²⁷

Hillary Clinton would have been Obama’s third term. She would have been the puppet; Obama the puppeteer. How? Obama has all the goods on Hillary and could have had her arrested at any time. She would, as President, do whatever Obama told her to do. Go back and read again the above quote as well as go back and reread They Fired the First Shot 2012. It will invigorate you and make you see things that you still do not see right now. It will help you understand yourself and understand your enemy. We are in a battle. What do you think Our Lady is here for? Why do you think She said:

“...A great struggle is about to unfold...between my Son and satan. Human souls are at stake.”?

The war has not been won. We are still engaged and there are still battles ahead of us. This separation, this division that is taking place has a purpose. The purpose is to have clear battle lines drawn, so that we know who our enemies are, so that we can fight them. We are to fight. Yes, we want their salvation. Yes, we want to pray for their conversion. But that does not mean we don't fight! We had the momentum, but now the shifting of the axis of power in the war is coming back against us. We are about to lose everything. Don't relax! Fight!

Fight Evil

Thank you to our Field Angels who are front line soldiers in the fight against evil. Our Lady said in an apparition to Ivan on Apparition Mountain on June 23, 2017:

“...Fight against evil and against sin and the idols of today’s world which seduce you. Be firm...”

Thank you for being firm. We need your consistency and generosity to continue the fight against evil, and we are grateful for every prayer, every sacrifice, and every gift from you. Thank you.

SPECIAL STATEMENT

So as not to take for granted the credibility of the Medjugorje Apparitions, it is stated that the Medjugorje apparitions are not formally approved by the Church.

Medjugorje Status
January 25, 2018 A.D.

No attempt is intended to pre-empt the Church on the validity of the Medjugorje Apparitions. They are private revelation waiting the Church's final judgment. In the interim, these private revelations are allowed by, and for, the faithful to have devotion to and to be spread legally by the Church. Devotion and the propagation of private revelations can be forbidden only if the private revelation is condemned because of anything it contains which contravenes faith and morals according to AAS 58 (1966) 1186 (Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith). Medjugorje has not been condemned nor found to have anything against faith or morals, therefore it is in the grace of the Church to be followed by the faithful. By the rite of Baptism one is commissioned and given the authority to evangelize. "By Baptism they share in the priesthood of Christ, in his prophetic and royal mission." One does not need approval to promote or to have devotions to private revelations or to spread them when in conformity to AAS 58 (1966) 1186, as the call to evangelize is given when baptized. These apparitions have not been approved formally by the Church. Caritas of Birmingham, the Community of Caritas and all associated with it, realize and accept that the final authority regarding the Queen of Peace, Medjugorje and happenings related to the apparitions, rests with the Holy See in Rome. We at Caritas, willingly submit to that judgment. While having an amiable relationship with the Diocese of Birmingham and a friendly relationship with its bishop, Caritas of Birmingham as a lay mission is not officially connected to the Diocese of Birmingham, Alabama, just as is the Knights of Columbus. The Diocese of Birmingham's official position on Caritas is neutral and holds us as Catholics in good standing.

1. The Church does not have to approve the apparitions. The Church can do as She did with the apparitions of Rue du Bac in Paris and the Miraculous Medal. The Church never approved these apparitions. She gave way to the people's widespread acceptance of the Miraculous Medal and thereby the Apparitions to St. Catherine. Sensus Fidei (Latin, meaning "The Sense of the Faithful"), regarding Medjugorje is that the "sense" of the people says that "Mary is here in Medjugorje."

2. Catechism of the Catholic Church 2nd Edition.

3. The Knights of Columbus also are not officially under the Church, yet they are very Catholic. The Knights of Columbus was founded as a lay organization in 1882 with the basic Catholic beliefs. Each local council appeals to the local Ordinary to be the Chaplain. The Knights of Columbus is still a lay organization, and operates with its own autonomy.

Dust Off Your Patriotic Rosary— It's Time to Start It Again

We are at war, and we need to be praying the Patriotic Rosary now, more than ever before. The crisis we face today is every bit as dangerous as before the November 2016 presidential elections. Even much more so, because the enemy now is experiencing, as a Friend of Medjugorje wrote in They Fired the First Shot 2012, a renewed sense of urgency now that their dirty dealings are being exposed :

“Evil has come to rule. Heaven, on February 2, 2012, told us it was so. For evil to secure itself, its ability to continue to rule, it must make radical moves now while it has its foot in the door. The intention of those on the verge of consolidating their power is to push for it now, knowing that once their evil intentions are exposed, to retreat is to face defeat. Evil must make its moves now because Christians are waking up. Those who possess evil intentions which rule in their hearts, have a limited time to make radical moves. The more moves they make, the more naked their intentions become and, therefore, the quicker they must move to the next step, in order to bulldoze resistance before it builds any momentum to resist and stop them.”²⁸

Why are we talking about these things? What has this got to do with Medjugorje? What does this have to do with Our Lady? Everything! You ask, “Why are we speaking about politics?” We are not; it is more like it is interpreted as such. Politics is involved in the evil we are up against. Our Lady said:

November 2, 2016

“...Expose evil...”

There have always been traces of God and Our Lady in events throughout history. In Fatima, Portugal, Our Lady said a larger, greater war would break out if Russia wasn't consecrated. There are a lot of political events involved with that. Do you think that it is a coincidence that Russia is so much in the news just after the 100 year anniversary of Our Lady's apparitions in Fatima? Not a chance! We can't shy back away from this and keep the messages separate from the battles swirling around us. If you do not believe that you are going to lose every battle, because you do not believe it is important to know yourself and to know your enemy, you will learn it with the bitterest taste in your life when it fully manifests. Where you are right now is that you may know yourself, but you do not know your enemy, and you are losing every other battle, along with everyone else. There are people, even good Christians, who think "We don't believe that these elections can be stolen because we wouldn't do that. We don't do those things." This mentality does not know their enemy; they do not know what he is capable of and that he will stop at nothing to succeed. If they will consciously support comfort rooms in a hospital to rock a baby to death after it survived a botched abortion, what won't they do? Rate the level of their conscience of those intentions by such actions. It is a dead conscience. Do you think they would not do everything in their power to steal elections?

The only way to preserve what Our Lady has given to us in the 2016 presidential election, is to counter a major setback on our road back to righteousness, and the Light of Her Son, is to begin to pray again as we have in the past. Our Lady of Medjugorje said very recently on February 2, 2018:

"...My children, do not believe lying voices which speak to you about false things, false glitter..."

Do You remember 2016?

Do you remember the prayers?

Do you remember the soul searching?

Do you remember the Novenas of Patriotic Rosary's? Hundreds of thousands of them?

The outcome of the U.S. Presidential Election in November 2016, was a gift from Our Lady. The following year, 2017, we told you not to relax. We launched Reclaiming Our Lady's Land, because the ball was in our court. The wind was in our sail... Was...

Many people have been listening to lying voices, coming from many different directions. Recent information shows the majority of Christian voices will be lost in the mid-term elections taking place on November 6, 2018, in the United States. A person from Canada recently wrote to us after the latest Mejanomics broadcast of March 8, 2018, titled, Power of Words Bring Down Empires:

March 9, 2018

“Thank you for this powerful broadcast! I agree with a Friend of Medjugorje that we should begin praying the Patriotic Rosary again. I remember when you requested the novena prior to the elections. (There were nine-weeks of novenas in 2016, prior to the Presidential Election in the U.S.). Praying with my sister Irene, over the phone was beautiful! I have a suggestion, what if we do another nine day novena with the Community, this time, over RadioWAVE... Since Our Lady is so close to all of you, and loves to be there with you, this will give the rest of us a chance to be closer to Our Lady through you! Canada needs help with our government too! Our situation is depressing to say the least. If America wins then we all win! God bless you all!”

M.I.

“If America wins then we all win!” Everything Our Lady has gained for us is on the brink of being lost if we do not pray, seriously pray.

Our Lady of Medjugorje said on July 25, 1991:

“...Dear children, I desire you to grasp the seriousness of the situation and that much of what will happen depends on your prayers, and you are praying a little bit!”

We strongly encourage you to get your prayer groups praying the Patriotic Rosary again.

If you have fallen away, it is time to come back. Organize the Patriotic Rosary weekly, if possible. Contact Caritas of Birmingham at 205-672-2000 and let us know you will be gathering with your prayer groups, so we can let people know where to find a Patriotic Rosary near them.

If you have access to Mej.com, join the Community of Caritas as we pray the Patriotic Rosary™ live online at 8:00 P.M. CDT on the dates listed on page 33.

We saw the miracle that happened in the November 2016 presidential election through the Patriotic Rosary. United in prayer with Our Lady, we can see the miracle again. Our Lady said:

October 2, 2015

“...Apostles of my love, my children, with an honest and simple heart unite in prayer regardless of how far you are from each other. Encourage each other in spiritual growth as I am encouraging you. I am watching over you and am with you whenever you think of me...”

There will be more coming in the next weeks regarding actions you can take.

Be in Prayer.

P.S. Many people signed up for Our Lady's Quick Reaction Force last year. There will be more actions taking place this year, along with starting or re-starting your prayer groups. Just begin praying and Our Lady will light up Her plans.

A.D.H.D.? Depression?

Can anyone make sense of the growing cases of A.D.H.D. and Depression among school age kids these days? A Friend of Medjugorje can, and the facts are frightening. The down-to-earth solution that he gives to this growing problem comes from years of walking with Our Lady.

“This book angers me and I want all other parents to read it before their kids are lost...”

—Mother of Three

There's a growing movement of parents, grandparents, and teachers that are reading this epistle by a Friend of Medjugorje and saying, "no," to the plans of satan.

(Bulk discounts are available, see page 36 to order.)

Patriotic Rosary

For the Consecration of Our Nation

by a Friend of Medjugorje

July 3, 2012, on the Vigil of our Nation's Birth

In an apparition to Medjugorje visionary Marija Lunetti

In the Field of Apparitions at Caritas

As the United States of America was being Consecrated To Our Lady's Immaculate Heart

Our Lady gave a formula with a solution for the healing of our nation:

“Form and make prayer groups through which we will pray for your healing and the healing of this nation to draw closer to God and to Me.”
