SPECIAL STATEMENT

Caritas of Birmingham is not acting on behalf of the Catholic Church or placing its mission under the church. Its mission is to reach all people of the earth. Its actions are outside of the church done privately. It is further stated:

So as not to take for granted the credibility of the Medjugorje Apparitions, it is stated that the Medjugorje apparitions are not formally approved by the Catholic Church.

Medjugorje Status

January 25, 2017 A.D.

No attempt is intended to pre-empt the Church on the validity of the Medjugorje Apparitions. They are private revelation waiting the Church's final judgment¹. In the interim, these private revelations are allowed by, and for, the faithful to have devotion to and to be spread legally by the Church. Devotion and the propagation of private revelations can be forbidden only if the private revelation is condemned because of anything it contains which contravenes faith and morals according to AAS 58 (1966) 1186 Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. Medjugorje has not been condemned nor found to have anything against faith or morals, therefore it is in the grace of the Church to be followed by the faithful. By the rite of Baptism one is commissioned and given the authority to evangelize. "By Baptism they share in the priesthood of Christ, in his prophetic and royal mission."² One does not need approval to promote or to have devotions to private revelations or to spread them when in conformity to AAS 58 (1966) 1186, as the call to evangelize is given when baptized. These apparitions have not been approved formally by the Church. Caritas of Birmingham, the Community of Caritas and all associated with it, realize and accept that the final authority regarding the Queen of Peace, Medjugorje and happenings related to the apparitions, rests with the Holy See in Rome. We at Caritas, willingly submit to that judgment. While having an amiable relationship with the Diocese of Birmingham and a friendly relationship with its bishop, Caritas of Birmingham as a lay mission is not officially connected to the Diocese of Birmingham, Alabama, just as is the Knights of Columbus.³ The Diocese of Birmingham's official position on Caritas is neutral and holds us as Catholics in good standing.

1. The Church does not have to approve the apparitions. The Church can do as She did with the apparitions of Rue du Bac in Paris and the Miraculous Medal. The Church never approved these apparitions. She gave way to the people's widespread acceptance of the Miraculous Medal and thereby the Apparitions to St. Catherine. Sensus Fidelium (Latin, meaning "The Sense of the Faithful"), regarding Medjugorje, is that the "sense" of the people says that "Mary is here (Medjugorje)."
2. Catechism of the Catholic Church 2nd Edition
3. The Knights of Columbus also are not officially under the Church, yet they are very Catholic. The Knights of Columbus was founded as a lay organization in 1882, with the basic Catholic beliefs. Each local council appeals to the local Ordinary to be the Chaplain. The Knights of Columbus is still a lay organization, and operates with its own autonomy.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Many who will read this short book have been following the writings of a Friend of Medjugorje for years. His original and unique insights into the important events of our day have won credence in hundreds of thousands of hearts around the world, with those affecting others, thereby, touching into the millions. His moral courage in the face of so many leaders caving into the pressures of a politically correct world is not only refreshing, but, according to tens of thousands of written testimonies over 30 years, has helped to strengthen deeply those who desire to live the fullness of Christianity. His insights have repeatedly proven prophetic, having their source in the apparitions of the Virgin Mary in Medjugorje. Deeply and personally influenced by the events surrounding Medjugorje, he gave himself to the prayerful application of the words of the Virgin Mary into his life. He has spoken all over the world for over a quarter of a century on Our Lady's messages and how to put them into everyday life. He came to understand that Our Lady was sent by God to speak to mankind in this time because the dangers man is facing are on a scale unlike any the world has ever known since Noah and the flood. He has written more on the messages and events of Medjugorje than any other person, which includes his bestselling books Words From Heaven[®] (1990), I See Far[™] (1994), How To Change Your Husband[™] (1995), Look What Happened While You Were Sleeping[™] (2007), It Ain't Gonna Happen[™] (2010) and They Fired the First Shot 2012[™] (2012), among hundreds of short books. He hosts a weekly radio program, Mejanomics, utilizing Our Lady's messages to bring greater clarity and understanding to important issues of our day. Millions have been deeply affected by his writings. As a witness in real-time of Our Lady's time on earth, his witness and writings will continue to speak—voicing Our Lady's way to hundreds of millions not yet born—in the centuries to come.

Medjugorje

The Story in Brief

A VILLAGE SEES THE LIGHT is the title of a story which “Reader’s Digest” published in February 1986. It was the first major news on a mass public scale that told of the Virgin Mary visiting the tiny village of Medjugorje, Bosnia-Hercegovina. At that time this village was populated by 400 families.

It was June 24, 1981, the Feast of John the Baptist, the proclaimer of the coming Messiah. In the evening, around 5:00 p.m., the Virgin Mary appeared to two young people, Mirjana Dragičević* and Ivanka Ivanković*. Around 6:40 p.m. the same day, Mirjana and Ivanka, along with four more young people, Milka Pavlović*, the little sister of Marija, Ivan Ivanković, Vicka Ivanković*, and Ivan Dragičević saw the Virgin Mary. The next day, June 25, 1981, along with Mirjana, Ivanka, Vicka and Ivan Dragičević, Marija Pavlović* and Jakov Čolo also saw the Virgin Mary, bringing the total to six visionaries. Milka Pavlović* and Ivan Ivanković only saw Our Lady once, on that first day. These six have become known as and remain “the visionaries.”

* Names at the time of the apparitions, they are now married with last names changed.

These visionaries are not related to one another. Three of the six visionaries no longer see Our Lady on a daily basis. As of March 2017, the Virgin is still appearing everyday to the remaining three visionaries; that's well over 15,640 apparitions.

The supernatural event has survived all efforts of the Communists to put a stop to it, many scientific studies, and even the condemnation by the local bishop; yet, the apparitions have survived, giving strong evidence that this is from God because nothing and no one has been able to stop it. For over 35 years, the apparitions have proved themselves over and over and now credibility is so favorable around the world that the burden of proof that this is authentic has shifted from those who believe to the burden of proof that it is not happening by those opposed to it. Those against the apparitions are being crushed by the fruits of Medjugorje — millions and millions of conversions which are so powerful that they are changing and will continue to change the whole face of the earth.

Introduction

Our Lady of Medjugorje said on September 25, 1986:

“...I am calling you, so that by your prayer and your life you help to destroy everything that’s evil in people and uncover the deception that satan makes use of. You pray that the truth prevails in all hearts...”

Some relegate the Virgin Mary to speaking only of religious themes. Some neutralize Her plans by telling of only the obvious things, which the saints and the Church have said for many centuries. In doing so, Our Lady’s words merely become a repetition of the same old lessons that most already know about, and for some, are deaf to. However, when it is understood that the Virgin Mary is speaking prophetically, meaning that She is speaking directly to our time, to uncover the deceptions of satan in this time, then Her words speak to every topic under Heaven. For many years, we have told of many of these topics, which are the revelation of truth for modern man to understand the words of Scripture, written thousands of years ago, in another time, another era of man. Yet, they are still the truth, even if poorly understood, or worse, poorly applied. The words of the Virgin Mary uncover, for those with an open heart, those things which once understood will make one free because that is what truth does. The freedom that comes with being enlightened is what one will feel if their heart is open.

PART ONE

Understanding How Deception Takes Place

Adam was told by God to name all animals and plant life. Adam didn't name things "ugh, thug, grunt, etc..." Adam spoke words, which he did not learn from an earthly father because he was not "born of man." So we must assume that Adam received the gift of language from his Heavenly Father. Therefore, language is from God, Whose very Son, the Second Person of the Trinity, was named The Word. Language was given to man as the means to conceptualize who God is within our own mind and soul. It is a gift God gave to us that we could speak to Him directly, as well as communicate knowledge of God with each other, a gift of words that other creatures do not have. The truth in language can only be discovered through a Biblical and Christian worldview. We can, therefore, assume that satan hates language and will always work to not only degrade it, through slang, filth, etc., but as he is the master deceiver, he uses this gift God gave to man to deceive man. Whereas God presents the truth to man through The Word (Jesus Christ and the Bible), satan presents the anti-word and thus language becomes the primary tool in satan's hands to destroy faith and morals.

As one can observe, today's battles are primarily battles over words, over interpretations and meanings of words. The battle is over the minds of the people. Just as satan did to Eve in the garden, he works to convince man through clever arguments, that God's Word is oppressive, unjust, untrue and that if we reject God's Word, we will find true freedom. Language is targeted by satan to degrade and bring down the human race because if we follow his advice, it will lead us not to freedom, but to slavery and oppression. By this means, satan uses the language of man to declare the opposite of what he intends. "Happy hours" are filled with many "unhappy" people. "Pro-Choice" speaks of liberty and freedom but leads to enslavement by satan. And where is the "choice" of the child? "Inclusive language" infers that no one is excluded but in actuality it is divisive and separates. For example, the phrase "All men are created equal," is truly inclusive. In today's culture, supposedly, to be inclusive we should say "All men, all women are created equal," but then little boys and little girls are not men and women, so we now have to say, “All men, all women, all little boys, and all little girls are created equal.” Then what of poor teenagers, they are neither little nor adults? All this segregates and excludes different groups when “all men” is truly inclusive of everybody.¹

One of the Founding Fathers, Noah Webster, recognized that every age is subject to the demoralization of its language. If the demoralization of language is not checked and controlled, it becomes the principle instrument of destruction.² How is language used to demoralize society and culture? Through allowing change for the sake of change, through vulgarity and slang, through changing the meanings of words, through introducing new words created not to elevate but to lower the moral standards by which man lives, through allowing other languages to compete and dominate over our own, and through allowing the influence of godless, virtueless cultures to compete, dominate and prevail over our own Christian culture and way of life. In other words, how and what we speak is what we become. Demoralize the English language or the languages of other countries, if you are from another country, and you demoralize the cultures of those lands.

One of Webster’s expectations for his English dictionary was to forge the United States into a single body of citizens through the one language of English. He knew that the unity of the country would depend on the English language as the language of America and he fully expected that this one book would unify America, making it forever inseparable from one side of its boundaries to the other. Webster's work of over two decades was a major factor in making our nation strong and undivided. He had a keen vision of the importance language would play in our nation's continuance and he believed this principle of being a nation of one language would apply to the nation's future security.

The meaning of the words were vitally important to defining the new nation, and the fundamental beliefs that laid its foundation, and for this reason, Webster was meticulous in studying each word in many languages. Webster, therefore, understood, as we also need to understand for our day, that Biblical Christian understanding of constitutional word meanings (words used in our nation's founding documents) was primary to our nation's continuance. If those meanings were to change, the life of Americans in the United States would also change. This is why it has always been seen as a primary importance to Americans' future security to educate our youth as to the history of the United States (without revisionist input) so that young Americans would be enlightened to the "dreams of their Forefathers" and would see that those dreams be carried into the next generations. Noah Webster believed that the young must be embodied with “a love of virtue, patriotism and religion” that must be taught. In the preface of Webster’s History of the United States, he wrote:

*“Republican government loses half its value, where the moral and social duties are imperfectly understood, or negligently practiced.”*³

In short, through the ruination of our language by the means discussed earlier, we are now assailed with information and word meanings that are forming our thoughts contrary to a Biblical worldview, especially in regard to understanding our nation’s founding and its founding documents: the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution. The information many Americans are receiving is corrupt, and is leading our nation towards embracing a secular worldview. Secular means without God. To insure that this doesn’t happen, Christians need to decrease their intake of society’s “normal” avenues of information, by-pass third party media* with their “slick campaigns of propaganda in defense of evil,” and increase their intake of information from direct

* Third-party media, is referring to those sources that insert themselves between you and the original source. We must ask ourselves, why feed on what someone else said, for example, about what the Pope said? Why not find out exactly what the Pope said? The implanted information system, between you and the source, must be by-passed and replaced with other direct sources.

sources, prayerfully reading and studying their content. The conditioning of thought, more and more, to a secular worldview is hitting not only outside, but also inside the Church, and from every angle possible. All of this above is important to understand, in order to understand in the pages that follow, how satan uses language to degrade a culture. In doing so, you receive a new resolve to become actively engaged in confronting these attempts to change the way we think about our nation according to God's truth.

PART TWO

The Deception

As discussed in the Part One, when language is changed from one meaning to another, you can change anything in the way it is understood. Universities and professors are very active in this evil work.

The definition of verbicide is:

- 1. deliberate distortion of the sense of a word*
- 2. one who distorts the sense of a word*

The war is won—a “verbicide” war that changed what our nation once believed itself to be. Today in our nation, the people believe our country is a democracy. Many may say, “No, we are a republic.” Yet, by their thinking and actions they demonstrate that they believe and live out a contradiction, that we are a democracy, not a republic. We must re-educate ourselves, our families, our friends, and our schools of the difference between a democracy and a republic. The forming of our thoughts through decades of efforts by verbicide revisionists, has literally changed even what we accept as lawful.

Once we understand the difference between a democracy and a republic, then we can once again know what it is we are—a republic. We must become active in changing back our nation to a republic in our understanding, in our speech and by our actions. We all must do our part to re-educate those around us, be they teachers in public or private schools, home schoolers, CCD and Sunday school teachers, those in our work places, or wherever else you can get into a position of opportunity that enables you to instruct, teach, correct and to guide people to this truth.

We have been slowly conditioned through the media and the educational systems—from the university level down to kindergarten, even preschool classrooms—that we are a democracy. Even great patriots of recent decades, such as President Reagan, would refer to our nation as a democracy, not realizing the significance in saying so moulded our thinking into believing such. This fundamental change of thinking through “liberalism,” that Pope Benedict XVI named as the wind of bad doctrine (liberalism in 2006), has been used to make us believe the United States is a democracy, causing us to slip into being one. This new mentality, developed over recent decades, that we are a democracy has actually led us into the situation we now find ourselves in with the highjacking of the Judicial System.*

Our forefathers believed that a democracy would not last long and that it was a very bad form of government, more bloody than a monarchy or aristocracy. In a democracy, the voting majority can force their will on others. Why should 10,000 people be forced to have their unalienable rights taken away by 10,001 people? A democracy rules by feeling, a very unstable form of government. A republic rules by law, thereby, a very stable form of government. David Barton relays that in a democracy, if the majority of the people decide that murder is no longer a crime, murder will no longer be a crime.⁴ So, the source of law for a democracy is the popular feeling of the people. If that is so for a democracy, then what is the source of law for the American Republic? According to one of our founders, Noah Webster:

“Our citizens should early understand that the genuine source of correct Republican principles is the Bible, particularly the New Testament and the Christian Religion.”⁵

A democracy’s source for law is popular feeling. A correct republic’s source for law is the Bible. The foundation of the American Republic was the Bible.

* Judicial system, see more in “Something in the Air,” by a Friend of Medjugorje Therefore, murder will always be a crime because it is a crime as written in the Bible. Not so with a democracy. Hence, change a nation by indoctrination through educating the people to believe they live in a democracy, and you can pass laws and advocate that killing in the womb or starving someone, as in euthanasia is not murder, along with a host of other criminal actions which can be made legal. Not so in a correct biblical, Christian principled republic, which its laws cannot operate legally outside the perimeters of the Bible, the Divine Law, ‘nature’s law, nature’s God.’ This is true not only for our nation, but for all nations. Now do you see how our Judicial system, approving abortions, etc., was highjacked by this simple work of the distortionists utilizing verbicide and revisionism? We have been made to believe the word Republic is interchangeable for the word Democracy.

Early law books of our Republic foundationed the United States on teachings that government was free to set its own policy only if God had not ruled in an area. For example, Alexander Hamilton, a signer of the Constitution, said:

“The law...dictated by God Himself is, of course, superior in obligation to any other. It is binding over all the globe, in all countries, at all times.

No human laws are of any validity if contrary to this.”⁶

On the other hand, Thomas Jefferson said:

“A democracy is nothing more than mob rule, when fifty-one percent of the people may take away the rights of the other forty-nine percent.”⁷

Does our Republic give us the right to live in a culture of life? Yes. Does the democracy we have become give us the right to live in a culture of life? No. The culture of death is flourishing. This cannot be if we set out to place our Republic back on its correct foundation of Divine Law, the Bible, first in our hearts and then in the law, in our institutions, and in the public square.

In a Republic, everyone has rights. You are protected as individuals. Our Constitution guaranteed a republican form of government—a government where men are free from civil government constantly interfering with their lives. In a Republic, government is greatly restricted in its reach into the affairs of its citizens and their liberty to self-govern their affairs within the perimeters of Christian principles. The citizen’s liberty was only restricted when one stepped out of the perimeters of Biblical principles, which are the source of our republic’s law, or where municipal law ruled where Divine Law had not. In other words, if you live the Christian tenets, there is not really any need for more laws except for municipal laws such as the setting of speed limits, etc.

Alexander Hamilton said, “Real liberty is never found in despotism or in the extremes of democracy.”⁸

The word “democracy” does not appear anywhere in the U.S. Constitution because the United States is not a democracy.

James Madison—1787 Federalist Paper #10:

*“Democracy is the most vile form of government... Democracies have ever been spectacles of turbulence and contention: have ever been found incompatible with personal security or the rights of property and have in general been short in their lives as they have been violent in their deaths.”*⁹

John Adams, 1815:

*“Democracy... while it lasts is more bloody than either aristocracy or monarchy. Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There is never a democracy that did not commit suicide.”*¹⁰

John Marshall—Chief Justice of the Supreme Court:

“Between a balanced Republic and a democracy, the difference is like that between order and chaos.”¹¹

Why? Because in a correct republic, you are bound by the order of law which cannot be changed on a whim; while a democracy, by mob rule, can change the current of the nation by popular feelings. Jedediah Morse, one of the authors of the Bill of Rights said:

“A simple democracy is the devil’s own government.”¹²

What is Jedediah Morse’s statement based on? Why did he say the “devil’s own government?” Indeed, the angel of “light,” lucifer’s first action of dissent before war broke out in Heaven was to rally other angels to get the votes to rule by numbers, not by the ways of God. lucifer, the devil, placed himself beyond God’s sovereignty by popular feeling and mob rule, utilizing the angels’ rebellion to try to establish a democracy in Heaven. Pride was born, and Our Lady of Medjugorje’s words of February 2, 2012, confirms he, pride, has come to rule...on the earth.

February 2, 2012

“...My children, pride has come to rule...”

To do what? To turn to chaos this “democracy” he helped to establish, thereby, making the ground fertile to usher in pride to rule over and destroy the world. Our Lady said:

August 2, 2011

“...As individuals, my children, you cannot stop the evil that wants to begin to rule in this world and to destroy it. But, according to God’s will, all together, with my Son, you can change everything and heal the world...”

Fisher Ames, author of the words of the First Amendment said:

“A democracy is a volcano which conceals the fiery material of its own destruction. These will produce an eruption and carry desolation in their way.”¹³

All American youth, just a few short decades ago, knew these truths. Our youth were required to memorize the Declaration of Independence. Why? So these truths would not be forgotten, lest we lose our nation in a generation.

The influence bishops have across this nation over Catholic schools to institute and make sure the minds of our youth are not indoctrinated with doctrines conflicting with the truths of the Declaration of Independence and of the United States founding is immense. All the Bishops have to do is exercise their authority, break through the curtain of power and committees that surround them and become personally involved. They should review periodically what is being taught, not through committees, but by personal involvement. They could even write teaching papers for their diocesan schools, not complicated theological teaching, but simple teaching as what has been explained here. The Bishops righting the errors that came through verbicide and revisionism that have rooted themselves in our school systems, both in private and public schools, alone can play a major part to rechart the United States back to the wisdom of our founding fathers. Across our land, most citizens do not know what is at stake concerning our liberty and the attacks being leveled against United States citizens. For decades, the verbicide revisionists have been unopposed in their efforts.

A legal maxim which gives reason why there is a prohibition of democracy in the United States, states:

“The multitude of those who err is no protection for error.”¹⁴

A multitude of people in our nation presently believe the error that we are a democracy, but just because the majority believe this does not mean our nation is not in serious error. We are. We must distinguish between the fact that we use a democratic process of voting, but that is not to be confused with democracy as a form of government. We cannot vote against nature’s law made by nature’s God, except if we are a democracy. We have covertly slipped into being a democracy.

In a republic, free men are protected from overbearing civil authority, by the U.S. Constitution, Article 4, Section 4, which guarantees to every inhabitant a republican form of government. You pledge allegiance to a republic, not a democracy:

“I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands...”

David Barton writes in Original Intent:

“The founders understood that Biblical values formed the basis of the republic and that the republic would be destroyed if the people’s knowledge of those values should ever be lost.

“A republic is the highest form of government devised by man, but it also requires the greatest amount of human care and maintenance. If neglected, it can deteriorate into a variety of lesser forms, including a democracy; a government conducted by popular feeling; an anarchy; a system in which each person determines his own rules and standards; an oligarchy, a government run by a small council or a group of elite individuals; or a dictatorship; a government run by a single individual. As John Adams explained:

‘Democracy will soon degenerate into an anarchy, such an anarchy that every man will do what is right in his own eyes and no man’s life or property or reputation or liberty will be secure, and every one of these will soon mould itself into a system of subordination of all the moral virtues and intellectual abilities, all the powers of wealth, beauty, wit, and science, to the wanton pleasures, the capricious will, and the execrable (abominable) cruelty of one or a very few.’”¹⁵

By what you have just read and now learned, Jedediah Morse’s words can now be clearly understood.

“A simple democracy is the devil’s own government.”¹⁶

Everyone must counter this by declaring war, to de-verbicide decades of subtle indoctrination by revisionists who have, through creeping gradualism, literally changed what this nation believes itself to be.

You, as an individual, must engage and fight against this war of verbicide. Make a battle promise right now and say,

- * I will never ‘say again’ that the nation of the United States of America is a democracy.
- * I will never ‘refer’ to it as a democracy.
- * I, when hearing others say or refer to the United States of America as a democracy, will ‘correct’ them and not remain silent, but rather will courageously address even those who are teachers, lawyers or any other who it may be difficult to do so.
- * I will not remain silent when I hear others saying that we are to spread democracy to other nations.
- * I will respond instead, “No, you and I are to spread liberty and liberty is the fruit of Christianity, and the tree of Christianity is from the seed of the Cross. I, therefore, will spread by my witness, Jesus Christ, Who is the author of liberty, and Who through liberty will bring about the fruit of peace.”

- * I will learn more about my moral republic and those who want to destroy it.

Our Lady wants us to take Her nation back. It begins with the conversion of our mentalities to what is truth, and be willing to have those deceptions uncovered in our lives that lead to truth, for it is not a government that makes us free, it is the truth that makes us free. Begin to live these commitments, and spread them to everyone you know. We will take our nation back through God’s help, one person at a time.

More Help, More Discernment, More Truth

Revisionists are those who change or distort history in order to redirect events of the present or future, which has been of epidemic portions in the educational systems of our day. In the late 1700's and early 1800's, Noah Webster understood as well as our country's Forefathers that one of the most important books was the dictionary. He and they believed that the dictionary was so important that it was second in the home only to the Bible. That it was to reinforce the Bible and that the words in it should define and form a Christian worldview. Noah Webster learned 24 languages, working for over 20 years, to put together the "gold standard" of the English language. To define a word, he studied that word in each of the 24 languages, talked to people across the land, formulating, from his study, the truest and fullest meaning. The understanding of our world is no less defined by the words the founder's themselves used. For this reason, we making a strong call that every home must have a dictionary. However, not a new and "revised" dictionary, but a dictionary of original intent. The Webster's American Dictionary of the English Language of 1828 is available from Caritas by calling in the U.S., 205-672-2000, between 8:30 AM and 5:00 PM Central Time USA. RELIGION, n. religion. [Fr. Sp. religion; It. religione; L. religio, from religo, to bind anew; re and ligo, to bind. This word seems originally to have signified an oath or vow to the gods, or the obligation of such an oath or vow, which was held very sacred by the Romans.]

1. Religion, in its most comprehensive sense, includes a belief in the being and perfections of God, in the revelation of his will to man, in man's obligation to obey his commands, in a state of reward and punishment, and in man's accountability to God; and also true godliness or piety of life, with the practice of all moral duties.

It therefore comprehends theology, as a system of doctrines or principles, as well as practical piety; for the practice of moral duties without a belief in a divine

WHAT KIND OF GOVERNMENT does a nation have when it takes actions to try and make “legal” what is against natural law? Hitler always used the law to accomplish his goals, knowing that if the law was behind him it would be a great psychological advantage to win the battle, to force people to accept his agenda. He made what was illegal, legal, and expanded evil. These types of governments are often controlled by a very minute group and always against the will of the people.

SOMETHING IN THE AIR

LEARN WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW ABOUT THE PAST

JUST AS SATAN CONSTANTLY STRIVES TO SUPPRESS Our Lady's messages from Medjugorje, he has also done an excellent job of hiding and distorting facts about the founding of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. What you will read within this writing is remarkable history that will thrill you, which satan does not want you to know.

For the Consecration of Our Nation

by a Friend of Medjugorje

An American flag is shown waving on a flagpole against a clear blue sky. In the background, there are dark green trees. The overall scene is patriotic and serene.

“What an unbelievable incredible inspiration. What an inspiring, moving, unforgettable experience it would be to see and hear it prayed by thousands in the Field.”

TWO SHORT BOOKS TO HELP REBUILD AMERICA

BY A FRIEND OF MEDJUGORJE

More are being written each day

Changing History

Many of our present leaders are shamefully silent in regard to remembering God with gratitude for His gifts. “Changing History” will make you want to pray for our Nation. When a nation fails this duty it ends up as the world is now.

TWO AMERICAS

“Two Americas” are clearly manifesting themselves; one growing in Light and one growing in darkness. A vaster and deeper abyss grows to separate the two. It is evident everywhere. We hold the “keys” to peace. See how you can unlock the door to save our Nation.

“It is when a people forget God that tyrants forge their chains...”

—PATRICK HENRY

- ★ Why have unbelievers, today, been allowed to get in positions to turn our laws upside down, destroying our Nation?
- ★ Why are the unbelievers in offensive positions, while we, Christians, find ourselves in defensive positions?
- ★ Why do individual states have to pass amendments to defend marriage?
- ★ Why can't we get Godly leaders in office?
- ★ Why have we lost authority over wickedness?
- ★ Why do the godless proudly parade their unmentionable and illicit lifestyles that cannot even be described in these writings, their abortions, their decadence, all the while imposing them forcibly upon society as the norm, flaunting in our faces that “You cannot stop us!”?

BVM CARITAS MEDJUGORJE PILGRIMAGES

Think about it. If you could combine every single event for the past 35 years that occurred in Washington D.C., New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Paris, London and every other place in the world, it would be dwarfed by the event of one single day in Medjugorje. Our Lady, Mary, Mother of Christ, comes to the earth, blesses the whole world with Her presence and speaks to us with words conveyed directly from God. Wouldn't you like to be part of one of the most important events in the history of creation?

Why pilgrimage with BVM CARITAS MEDJUGORJE PILGRIMAGES?

- * The experience of over 542 trips to Medjugorje!
- * Combined experience of over 675 years!
- * By the testimonies of our pilgrims, it is repeatedly stated that Caritas is the most spiritual!
- * Lowest Fares of anybody for a full-hosted pilgrimage!
- * Non-smoking trips (many who smoke and travel with us, offer it up as a sacrifice and receive many graces).
- * The Community of Caritas lives in Medjugorje which gives us an in-depth, behind-the-scenes understanding of Medjugorje.
- * Sites are prayed at, shown and explained (such as the site where Jakov and Vicka were physically and bodily taken to Heaven from Earth by Our Lady).
- * The only interest we have is spiritual profit. None of us are paid to guide you. We do it in response to Our Lady's message in which She requested to "...sacrifice your lives for the salvation of the world..." (February 25, 1988)

"This was my second experience with Caritas in Medjugorje and if I have the means, it won't be my last."

D.R., Baton Rouge, Louisiana, April 2015 Pilgrim

- * Our mission house in Medjugorje distributes our materials to all who come from around the world. You will benefit on your pilgrimage by the spiritual material, advice, and guidance that will be available to you.
- * You stay in the middle of the village by St. James Church, yet on the trail to Apparition Hill ✧ a best location! ✧ On top of that, pilgrimages are scheduled around special apparitions or being in the village when the monthly message to the world is given.
- * BVM CARITAS MEDJUGORJE PILGRIMAGES has remained loyal and centered exclusively on Medjugorje, and pilgrimages only to this holy village. Focus and prayer life has given our founder a deep understanding about Our Lady's apparitions and formed this understanding in all who lead the pilgrimages from the community.

This year, why not visit the village that is changing the entire world?

Five “Must Do’s” in Medjugorje

Apparition Mountain, Cross Mountain, the Visionaries, St. James Church, and the Caritas Mission House, these are the five “must do’s” to have a complete Medjugorje pilgrimage. Throughout the years, pilgrims from every nation have made the Caritas of Birmingham Mission House in Medjugorje a part of their pilgrimage. Countless numbers have relayed to us that it is there, in the Mission House, where they came to understand more fully Our Lady’s messages and plans for the world. It is why people, who have returned home from their pilgrimages, have told others going to Medjugorje to go to the Caritas Mission House, stating that the Caritas Mission House was a high point of their pilgrimage and a “must do” to make a pilgrimage to Medjugorje a complete and more profound experience.

Don’t Miss a Visit to the Caritas Mission House

“We come in several times during our pilgrimages to talk about the messages with the community. We are always welcome and encouraged to bring others in as well. We have gone to Medjugorje many times and the Mission House is always a place we must visit.”

B & G Ireland

“The billboard drew me and my family into the Caritas Mission House. I was suprised to find the message and CD’s in my language.”

Family of 7 from Spain

“I came in looking for materials to take back to my convent and I left with 2 bags of beautiful booklets and postcards containing Our Lady’s messages.”

Nun from England

Look for the St. Michael statue and “This is My Time” Signs.

DECEPTION IS ONE OF THE MOST ESSENTIAL of criminal virtues. The perfect crime necessitates deception. Like a chameleon, deception takes on many colors to blend in with its surroundings as the need demands, in order to hide and cover its own tracks. The goal is to appear harmless, like it actually belongs where it really does not. In this short book that you are holding in your hands, a Friend of Medjugorje uncovers what may be seen as one of the greatest deceptions taking place in our nation today — beguiling even the most well-meaning people, even good people. The principles that this book contains apply to every area of life, not just the one topic covered here. In What is the devil's Government?, one will not only have one's eyes opened, but will feel compelled to let everyone know about it. This is not a short book to keep to oneself, but is to be given to the ones you care about most.
